DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Parthasarathy et al. (5,913,192).

As to claim 11, Parthasarathy teaches a method speaker identification and verification, comprising the steps of:

Accepting input speech (21);

Generating N-best candidates (22; Col.5, lines 3-30);

placing the candidates, inherently statistically, for verification ; and verifying the output is conclusive (26, 28; Col.5, lines 30-60).

Claims 1 and 21 are analogous to claim 11 and are rejected for the foregoing reasons by Parthasarathy.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-10 and 13-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Parthasarathy's art is related to speaker identification. According to Parthasarathy, speech is accepted, and N-best list is generated, inherently the list is generated statistically according to the score, and where the N-best is verified according to the generated list (abstract; Fig.2). therefore the examiner submit that claims 1, 11 and 21 are anticipated by Parthasarathy.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
